

We keep up to date with our product manufacturers on the latest developments in an ever changing aerospace industry. Akzo Nobel Aerospace Coatings, Awlgrip, Alumigrip, PPG Aerospace, Sikkens, Valspar, just to name a few.

Elite Aerospace Coatings only uses the market leaders in coatings for our clients:

Please click on the below links:

AkzoNobel is the largest global paints and coatings company and a major producer of specialty chemicals for aircraft.

PPG Aerospace are a company based in Tullamarine in the Australian state of Victoria. Their main business area is coatings, sealants, paint strippers, transparencies, chemicals.

Awlcraft 2000 is a fast drying, acrylic urethane high gloss topcoat for an easy-to-apply, high gloss finish. Awlcraft Metallics is a high gloss topcoat used to create a special effect finish.

Sikkens is a world leader in refinishing products for more than 100 years. Sikkens is part of AkzoNobel, the world's number one coatings manufacturer. They offer the finest products in the market, together with services, training and support: a powerful formula for perfect results and bodyshop profitability. Because we know that our success builds on your success.
